NASCAR Sprint Cup & Nationwide Series

Same great seats! Lower wheelchair reserved in turn 1!

Day 1 (Friday): We're off to the races! Departing Sioux Falls, we head south to Kansas City and the famed Kansas Speedway for our first look at the weekend's festivities. If you want to watch qualifying for the Sprint Cup Race, admission is $10.00 per person. After a couple of hours at the track, we'll head to our hotel in time for the Drury Inn's "Happy Hour" with free drinks and snacks. You're on your own for dinner tonight, but there are restaurant choices nearby.

Day 2 (Saturday): After we enjoy a hot, complimentary breakfast, we'll depart for the track. You can wander through the souvenir trailers or go into the track to watch more qualifying and practices. For those who want an up-close experience, you can purchase "Fan Walk" passes for Friday or Saturday, directly from www.KansasSpeedway.com. These passes allow you into a "special" section behind pit road to view all of the action up close and personal. Later this afternoon, the Nationwide Series boys hit the track for what is sure to be an exciting race! After the race we'll have our "bus" gating party before heading back to the hotel for some relaxation and rest up to tomorrow!

Day 3 (Sunday): It's the day you've been waiting for! After another great breakfast, we'll "race" back to the track! Your race package includes something new this year. This morning, before the race, you will be allowed inside the track area for a free concert and driver introductions. Then you can hit the grandstands to await the four most famous words in racing . . .

"Gentlemen, start your engines!"

After the race, it's homeward bound with some great memories of an awesome race!
