

SCENIC TULIPS & TRAINS

Along with the Amana Colonies Tour

Day 1: We'll get acquainted today as we board passengers from various points in South Dakota and travel to the Des Moines, Iowa, area. En route, we'll make a stop at the Squirrel Cage Jail in Council Bluffs. One of only 18 rotary jails ever built, it was the largest with 3-stories. There are only 3 remaining rotary jails left standing today. Overnight West Des Moines, IA.

Day 2: We'll depart early this morning for Pella . . . before you see the town, you'll probably smell the tulips in the air! You'll have the Ultimate Package to discover all that Pella has to offer today . . . reserved seating at the Grandstand Show and Parade, admission to the Historical Village and Vermeer Windmill tour, Scholte House tour, Pella City tour, and a pass on the golf car shuttles. Take your pick of many interesting things to do today, including the Dutch Family Singers, Dutch Tradition Organ Recitals, Rolscreen Museum Tour (retired depot), Quilt Displays, Klokkenspel Performances, Antique Auto Displays, and on and on and on!

We'll spend the whole day in Pella before driving to Newton, Iowa, for our overnight.

Day 3: Today we'll journey east into the Amana Colonies where a five-star step-on guide will join us for a ride through the Colonies filled with history. You'll see wood-working in progress, visit the sausage store, and have some time to shop in the town of Amana after lunch. You'll marvel at what must be the world's largest rocking chair. "Quaint" doesn't begin to describe this one-of-a-kind experience! Then it's off to the Boone Scenic Railroad for a two-hour journey through the Des Moines River Valley all while enjoying an elegant dining atmosphere. Our overnight stop will be in Ft Dodge, IA.

Day 4: This morning we begin the trip home with a stop in Sioux City at Trinity Heights where you can wander through the gardens viewing the beautiful statues and see the life-size wooden carving of "The Last Supper." It's hard to believe our sweet trip back in time is about over. Happy trails!
