

Smoky Mountain Melody

with Dollywood's "Harvest Celebration" and "Southern Gospel Jubilee"

Day 1: Departing from Huron, we'll have a long day on the road today as we head southeast to our overnight stay in Columbia, Missouri.

Day 2: This morning we'll depart for Nashville where we will take in a show and dinner at the Chaffin Barn Dinner Theater.

Tonight's madcap comedy feature Albert and wife Barbara who have cooked up a get-rich-quick perfect crime! Fake Albert's death and collect the insurance money! Overnight Nashville.

Day 3: We leave for Pigeon Forge, Tennessee, this morning. We'll have time to check into our hotel, freshen up, and then it's off to the Black Bear

Jamboree Dinner Theater (again, on us!). After dinner, it's side-splitting laughter at the Country Tonite Theater—a show that is packed with fun, laughter, music and magic! Overnight Pigeon Forge.

Day 4: Today we visit some of the most beautiful country in America . . . the Great Smoky Mountains.

We'll have a step-on guide who will take us across the border into North Carolina to the quaint town of Cherokee. We'll have time to shop for native American crafts. Then we'll travel east a bit to tour the fabulous Biltmore Estate in Asheville,

North Carolina, a magnificent 250-room chateau filled with priceless art and antiques. It is truly a "jaw-dropping" experience! Overnight Pigeon Forge.

Day 5: Today it's "Dollywood, here we come!" We'll spend the whole day at the "Entertainment Capital of the Smokies." We'll be in Dollywood during both the Harvest Celebration and the Southern Gospel Jubilee, featuring many famous Southern Gospel artists. Dollywood features delicious country cookin' in nine restaurants, master craftsmen, and acres of unique attractions including Dolly's Museum to Eagle Mountain Sanctuary and a 110-ton steam train. If you love gospel music, don't miss the Southern Gospel Music Hall of Fame. Tonight, we're in for some side-splitting, hand-slapping comedy at Pigeon Forge's funniest show—the Comedy Barn. Overnight Pigeon Forge.

Day 6: Our morning begins on the bus, bound for Jeffersonville, IN, where we'll tour of the world-famous Schimpff's Confectionery (think Red Hots!), one of the oldest family-owned candy businesses in the US. Bring some candy home for your family! Overnight Indianapolis, IN. Day 7: Today we'll travel to Springfield, IL, to celebrate Lincoln's Bicentennial. We visit the museum, his home and tomb. Afterward we'll travel to our overnight destination of Bettendorf, IA.

Day 8: We'll find our way home today, reviewing our new memories and singing our favorite songs from our music-filled week. Our friendly "goodbyes" will only be temporary, because we hope to see you on another Prairie Coach Tour!
